

Sample Two Year Preventive Medicine Curriculum

Graduate Medical Education Committee - American College of Preventive Medicine

Curricular Area	Post Graduate Year Two - Broad PM Experiences	Post Graduate Year Three - Focused PM Experiences
Didactics (5 wks minimum each year)	seminars, presentations, grand rounds, journal club, board prep knowledge & skills progressive learning from core complex courses leading to an MPH
Clinical Rotations (5 wks minimum each year)	Patient Care Experiences Examples: Refugee health, Student health, Employee health, STD, TB, Community health, Inpatient PM, Outpatient PM, Public Health, Occupational clinics, Prison health, Aerospace, Travel clinics, Corporate wellness, Community wellness, Health fairs, Telemedicine	Aerospace Medicine Clinics
		Occupational Medicine Clinics
		Public Health and General Preventive Medicine Clinics initial responsibilities expanded responsibilities reach independence
Population Health Rotations (10 wks minimum each year)	Population Health Rotations Public Health 4 wks minimum	Aerospace Medicine Rotations
	Examples: Public Health Departments, Quality Improvement Organizations, Managed Care Organizations, Integrated Health Care Systems, Large Companies/ Industry, Population Medicine at other Clinical sites	Occupational Medicine Rotations
		Public Health and General Preventive Medicine Rotations overview assessment planning implementation evaluation
Research projects (5 wks minimum each year)	Identify topics and literature review methods and data collection analysis write up and presentation

Notes:

1. The time recommendations in column 1 are intended as a guide for the minimum amount of time, 'full time equivalent', that would need to be completed.
2. While continuity experiences should be included in both clinical and population based rotations, the specific structure of those experiences can be individualized.
3. Examples of training sites and their activities are described in the accompanying table.